PUBLIC LECTURE

February 25, 2019 (Monday)

1:30 – 3:30 pm (doors open at 1:00 pm)

Captain William Spry Community Centre, 16 Sussex St., Halifax

From 14th Colony to Confederation 1749 – 1867

ALEX BOUTILIER has written extensively on the early social history of the Maritimes, and is currently completing his third book on the topic. In this lecture his focus will be twofold. He will assess the role of both the Governors and Lieutenant Governors in bringing Nova Scotia into Confederation. He will also describe the experiences of the citizens who were under their rule and how their fight to be heard also influenced the future direction of the 14th colony.

Seating is limited to 100 people – on a first-come, first-admitted basis. Lectures are open to all. Registration is not required. Goodwill donations are gratefully accepted.

Light refreshments will be served. PLEASE BRING YOUR OWN MUG.

Please avoid wearing scents if possible – some people have allergies.
