

The Seniors' College Association of Nova Scotia Presents

Free Public Lecture

Monday, Nov. 26, 1:30 – 3:30

Captain William Spry Community Centre, 16 Sussex St.

What Every Senior Needs to Know about Family Law
(But Never Got Around to Asking)
with
Rollie Thompson, LLB, QC

The presentation will focus on: access and contact with grandchildren, family property, spousal support, loans to married children and child protection. He will cover the basics of the Divorce Act, Parenting and Support Act and the Supreme Court Family Division.

Rollie has taught at the Schulich School of Law, Dalhousie University, since 1982. He is the former Executive Director of Dalhousie Legal Aid Service and Editor of the Canadian Family Law Quarterly. He was appointed Queen's Counsel in 2011. He is the recipient of awards in excellence for teaching, contributions to legal aid service and family justice.

Light refreshments will be served. Please bring your own mug.
A cash donation would be welcome to help defray costs.
