

Kit Waters

Kit was employed by the Nova Scotia Department of Justice for 30 years, retiring as Executive Director of Policy and Information Management. Following retirement from the provincial government, she worked as a consultant in the criminal justice field and taught undergraduate Criminology courses at St.Mary's University.

With members of the NS Criminal Justice Association and criminal justice experts, she coordinated the delivery of two courses: Criminal Justice System in Nova Scotia: Issues and Challenges (Halifax and Mahone Bay 2019) and Criminal Justice in NS: One Size Does Not Fit All (Halifax 2020). Kit was elected to the SCANS Board of Directors in 2024 and is a member of the SCANS HRM Faculty Committee..